

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

David Charles Agnason

David Charles Agnason, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about November 24, 1969, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Joaquin, for the crime of possession or purchase of a controlled substance for sale. He served one year, nine months with the California Youth Authority, and two years, three months parole. He was discharged on December 14, 1973, having completed his sentence.

David Charles Agnason has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Joaquin, an order dated December 18, 1997, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, David Charles Agnason has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to David Charles Agnason a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Dominick John Alongi, Jr.

Dominick John Alongi, Jr., a resident of Texas, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about July 17, 1990, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Bernardino, for the crime of transportation of a controlled substance. He served three years probation, and one year jail. He was discharged on July 17, 1993, having completed his sentence.

Dominick John Alongi, Jr. has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Dominick John Alongi, Jr. has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Dominick John Alongi, Jr. a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Anthony Amador

Anthony Amador, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about July 11, 2000, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Santa Barbara, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance for sale. He served four months prison, and three years parole. He was discharged on December 16, 2003, having completed his sentence.

Anthony Amador has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Santa Barbara, an order dated April 25, 2011, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Anthony Amador has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Anthony Amador a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Todd Myron Anderson

Todd Myron Anderson, a resident of Arizona, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

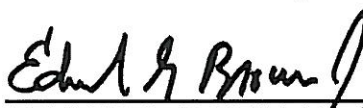

He was sentenced on or about May 25, 1988, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Diego, for the crime of manufacturing a controlled substance. He served five years probation, and one year jail. He was discharged on May 25, 1993, having completed his sentence.

Todd Myron Anderson has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Todd Myron Anderson has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Todd Myron Anderson a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Willie Beathia, III

Willie Beathia, III, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about October 19, 1989, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Kern, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance. He served five months prison and one year parole. He was discharged on April 30, 1991, having completed his sentence.

Willie Beathia, III has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Kern, an order dated February 7, 2011, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Willie Beathia, III has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Willie Beathia, III a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Steve John Campbell

Steve John Campbell, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about May 27, 1993, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of evading peace officers with disregard for safety. Specifically, Mr. Campbell attempted to outrun police in order to avoid a ticket. He served nine months probation, and 180 days jail. He was discharged on February 27, 1994, having completed his sentence.

Steve John Campbell has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, an order dated April 16, 2009, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Campbell states that he participates in the Susan B. Komen Walk for the Cure and fundraises for Fun Fly, and that he wishes to reenlist in the National Guard. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Steve John Campbell has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Steve John Campbell a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Frank Lawrence Cardwell

Frank Lawrence Cardwell, a resident of Arizona, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about January 9, 1959, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Santa Clara, for the crime of vehicle theft. Specifically, Mr. Cardwell and two others took a 1948 Convertible that did not belong to them, although the car was returned undamaged to its owner. He served one year, three months parole, and eight months prison. He was discharged on January 9, 1961, having completed his sentence.

Frank Lawrence Cardwell has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Cardwell has not been in trouble with the law since 1966.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Frank Lawrence Cardwell has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Frank Lawrence Cardwell a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Gerald Eugene Carnahan, II

Gerald Eugene Carnahan, II, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about June 23, 1993, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance for sale. He served nine months prison, and two years parole. He was discharged on June 11, 1999, having completed his sentence.

Gerald Eugene Carnahan, II has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, an order dated November 4, 2010, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Gerald Eugene Carnahan, II has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Gerald Eugene Carnahan, II a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Constance Clark

Constance Clark, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

She was sentenced on or about December 8, 1982, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of robbery. Specifically, Ms. Clark and a companion stole a purse at gunpoint. She served three years probation, eight months prison. She was discharged on December 8, 1985, having completed her sentence.

Constance Clark has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. She has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, an order dated October 3, 2013, evidencing that since her release from custody, she has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted herself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Ms. Clark is active in her church, and volunteers her time there. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that she be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of her sentence and good conduct in the community of her residence since her release, Constance Clark has paid her debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Constance Clark a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Jack Daniel Cole

Jack Daniel Cole, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about November 23, 1998, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of manufacturing a controlled substance and child endangerment. Specifically, Mr. Cole permitted methamphetamine to be manufactured in a shed behind his house while his child was present in the house. He served one year, seven months prison and one year parole. He was discharged on August 13, 2001, having completed his sentence.

Jack Daniel Cole has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, an order dated September 16, 2010, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Jack Daniel Cole has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Jack Daniel Cole a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Richard Gene Cooper

Richard Gene Cooper, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about November 6, 1995, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Yuba, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance while armed. He served nine months prison, and three years, two months parole. He was discharged on August 28, 2000, having completed his sentence.

Richard Gene Cooper has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Yuba, an order dated September 28, 2010, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Richard Gene Cooper has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Richard Gene Cooper a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Jorge Corcio-Velasquez

Jorge Corcio-Velasquez, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about June 12, 1991, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of sale or transportation of a controlled substance. He served three years probation, and 270 days jail. He was discharged on June 22, 1994, having completed his sentence.

Jorge Corcio-Velasquez has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, an order dated July 29, 2004, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Jorge Corcio-Velasquez has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Jorge Corcio-Velasquez a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Johnnie Roger Crossman

Johnnie Roger Crossman, a resident of Florida has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about July 28, 1989, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Ventura, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance for sale. He served five years probation, and 180 days jail. He was discharged on July 28, 1994, having completed his sentence.

Johnnie Roger Crossman has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Ventura, an order dated July 25, 1997, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Johnnie Roger Crossman has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Johnnie Roger Crossman a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

David John Dennison

David John Dennison, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about September 10, 1993, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Ventura, for the crime of possession of marijuana for sale. He served three years probation, and 150 days jail. He was discharged on September 27, 1996, having completed his sentence.

David John Dennison has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Ventura, an order dated March 16, 2005, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, David John Dennison has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to David John Dennison a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Tracy Vernon Drain

Tracy Vernon Drain, a resident of Oklahoma, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about September 26, 1996, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Orange, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance for sale. He served three years probation, and 120 days jail. He was discharged on September 26, 1999, having completed his sentence.

Tracy Vernon Drain has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Tracy Vernon Drain has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Tracy Vernon Drain a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Charles Lee Edmerson

Charles Lee Edmerson, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about March 18, 1993, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Joaquin, for the crime of sale or transportation of a controlled substance. He served one year, five months prison, and three years parole. He was discharged on August 22, 1997, having completed his sentence.

Charles Lee Edmerson has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Joaquin, an order dated September 23, 2010, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Charles Lee Edmerson has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Charles Lee Edmerson a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

John Byron Forrest

John Byron Forrest, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about July 6, 1992, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Diego, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance for sale. He served one year, six months prison, and one year parole. He was discharged on February 21, 1995, having completed his sentence.

John Byron Forrest has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Diego, an order dated February 9, 2007, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, John Byron Forrest has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to John Byron Forrest a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Terry Lee Foster

Terry Lee Foster, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about February 27, 1998, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Fresno, for the crime of burglary and receiving stolen property. He served two years prison, and three years parole. He was discharged on May 15, 2003, having completed his sentence.

Terry Lee Foster has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Kern, an order dated December 23, 2009, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Foster reports that he has supported the Police Activities League, the American Red Cross, and Goodwill on a regular basis. Since he was released from custody, Mr. Foster received an Associate's Degree in General Education and a Bachelor's Degree in Industrial Technology. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Terry Lee Foster has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Terry Lee Foster a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

John Frederick Gori

John Frederick Gori, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about March 22, 1993, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Joaquin, for the crime of possession of marijuana for sale. He served five years probation. He was discharged on March 22, 1998, having completed his sentence.

John Frederick Gori has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Joaquin, an order dated September 12, 2013, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, John Frederick Gori has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to John Frederick Gori a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Michael Bryce Griffing

Michael Bryce Griffing, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about March 14, 1997, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Mono, for the crime of possession of marijuana for sale. He served five years probation. He was discharged on March 4, 2002, having completed his sentence.

Michael Bryce Griffing has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Mono, an order dated October 8, 2013, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Michael Bryce Griffing has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Michael Bryce Griffing a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Clark William Guest

Clark William Guest, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about February 4, 1997, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Luis Obispo, for the crime of burglary. Specifically, Mr. Guest stole some items from his landlord to support his addiction to methamphetamine. He served five years probation, and 60 days jail. He was discharged on February 4, 2002, having completed his sentence.

Clark William Guest has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Luis Obispo, an order dated December 13, 2010, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Guest is now the coordinator for the Felony Adult Drug Court Program in which he participated over ten years ago. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Clark William Guest has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Clark William Guest a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Jerry L. Hartman

Jerry L. Hartman, a resident of Oregon, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about February 16, 1966, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Luis Obispo, for the crime of check forgery. Specifically, Mr. Hartman stole some checks from his parents. He served one year, four months parole, and one year, seven months prison. He was discharged on February 25, 1969, having completed his sentence.

Jerry L. Hartman has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Jerry L. Hartman has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Jerry L. Hartman a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Lucy Howard

Lucy Howard, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

She was sentenced on or about October 30, 1992, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Napa, for the crime of burglary. Specifically, Ms. Howard permitted her friends to take items without paying from a hardware supply store where she worked. She served three years probation, and 90 days jail. She was discharged on October 30, 1995, having completed her sentence.

Lucy Howard has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. She has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Joaquin, an order dated September 19, 2013, evidencing that since her release from custody, she has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted herself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that she be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of her sentence and good conduct in the community of her residence since her release, Lucy Howard has paid her debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Lucy Howard a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Renee Louise Howard

Renee Louise Howard, a resident of Kentucky, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

She was sentenced on or about January 31, 1992, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Santa Barbara, for the crime of receiving known stolen property. Specifically, Ms. Howard stole checks and credit cards, which she attempted to use for a limousine service and to cash at a bank. She served one year, one month parole, and six months prison. She was discharged on October 8, 1993, having completed her sentence.

Renee Louise Howard has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. She has shown that since her release from custody, she has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted herself as a law abiding citizen. Indeed, Ms. Howard reports that she is active in her church and with her son's high school soccer team.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of her sentence and good conduct in the community of her residence since her release, Renee Louise Howard has paid her debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Renee Louise Howard a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Jeffery Andrew Jaster

Jeffery Andrew Jaster, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about March, 19, 1998 in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of transportation of a controlled substance and was sentenced to two years in prison. On or about May 6, 1998 he was sentenced in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Orange, for the crime of transportation of a controlled substance and was sentenced to one year, four months in prison to be served concurrently. He served two years in prison, and two years on parole. He was discharged on May 23, 2000, having completed his sentence.

Jeffery Andrew Jaster has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, an order dated June 7, 2012, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Jaster has been employed since his discharge as a technician and participates in We Give Thanks program. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

The Board of Parole Hearings received and reviewed Mr. Jaster's pardon application and related materials pursuant to California Penal Code section 4802, and recommended him for a pardon on January 15, 2013. Mr. Jaster also received a recommendation for a pardon by a majority of the justices of the Supreme Court of California, received on April 16, 2014, as required by article V, section 8 subdivision (a) of the California Constitution.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Jeffery Andrew Jaster has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Jeffery Andrew Jaster a full and unconditional pardon for the above offenses.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Charles Nathaniel Johnston

Charles Nathaniel Johnston, a resident of Washington, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about April 8, 1986, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Orange, for the crime of sale or transportation of a controlled substance. He served three years probation, and 60 days jail. He was discharged on April 21, 1989, having completed his sentence.

Charles Nathaniel Johnston has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Charles Nathaniel Johnston has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Charles Nathaniel Johnston a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Harmony Lorelie Lee

Harmony Lorelie Lee, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

She was sentenced on or about March 29, 1991, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Diego, for the crime of transportation of a controlled substance. She served ten months prison, and one year parole. She was discharged on April 1, 1993, having completed her sentence.

Harmony Lorelie Lee has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. She has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, an order dated November 21, 2002, evidencing that since her release from custody, she has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted herself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that she be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of her sentence and good conduct in the community of her residence since her release, Harmony Lorelie Lee has paid her debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Harmony Lorelie Lee a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Dennis Ray Leonard

Dennis Ray Leonard, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about August 9, 1994, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Bernardino, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance while armed and manufacturing a controlled substance. He served three months prison, and one year parole. He was discharged on January 12, 1997, having completed his sentence.

Dennis Ray Leonard has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Bernardino, an order dated August 26, 2004, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Dennis Ray Leonard has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Dennis Ray Leonard a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Mark A. Lewkowicz

Mark A. Lewkowicz, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about May 30, 2000, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Butte, for the crime of planting and/or cultivating marijuana. He served one year, nine months probation, and 180 days jail. He was discharged on March 6, 2002, having completed his sentence.

Mark A. Lewkowicz has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Butte, an order dated September 11, 2013, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Mark A. Lewkowicz has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Mark A. Lewkowicz a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Craig Richard Lichtle

Craig Richard Lichtle, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about July 7, 2000, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Contra Costa, for the crime of manufacturing a controlled substance and possessing a controlled substance for sale. He served one year, two months prison, and one year parole. He was discharged on November 23, 2002, having completed his sentence.

Craig Richard Lichtle has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Contra Costa, an order dated July 9, 2010, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Craig Richard Lichtle has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Craig Richard Lichtle a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Michael John Lyons

Michael John Lyons, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about May 16, 1978, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Riverside, for the crime of robbery. Specifically, Mr. Lyons robbed a convenience store. He served one year, eight months prison, and one year parole. He was discharged on April 1, 1980, having completed his sentence.

Michael John Lyons has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Riverside, an order dated December 3, 2002, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Lyons currently works as a substance abuse counselor. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Michael John Lyons has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Michael John Lyons a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Raymond Markarian

Raymond Markarian, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about April 9, 1990, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of sale or transportation of a controlled substance. He served two years, eleven months probation, and 250 days jail. He was discharged on April 7, 1993, having completed his sentence.

Raymond Markarian has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, an order dated November 9, 1995, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Raymond Markarian has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Raymond Markarian a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Julie Lauren Millman

Julie Lauren Millman, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

She was sentenced on or about January 18, 1989, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Francisco, for the crime of sale or transportation of a controlled substance. She served three years probation, and one year jail. She was discharged on June 3, 1993, having completed her sentence.

Julie Lauren Millman has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. She has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Francisco, an order dated October 27, 2003, evidencing that since her release from custody, she has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted herself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that she be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of her sentence and good conduct in the community of her residence since her release, Julie Lauren Millman has paid her debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Julie Lauren Millman a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Thomas Louis Minghetti

Thomas Louis Minghetti, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about February 7, 1991, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Santa Clara, for the crime of sale or transportation of a controlled substance. He served eleven months parole, and two years, two months prison. He was discharged on July 26, 1995, having completed his sentence.

Thomas Louis Minghetti has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Santa Clara, an order dated January 28, 2008, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Thomas Louis Minghetti has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Thomas Louis Minghetti a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Genesis Andrew Miron

Genesis Andrew Miron, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about November 1, 1994, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Orange, for the crime of grand theft. Specifically, Mr. Miron stole a safe from a friend's parent's home. He served three years probation, and one year jail. He was discharged on November 1, 1998, having completed his sentence.

Genesis Andrew Miron has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, an order dated November 3, 2011, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, since Mr. Miron completed his sentence he served in the United States Marine Corps and received an Honorable Discharge. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Genesis Andrew Miron has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Genesis Andrew Miron a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

John Joseph Moore

John Joseph Moore, a resident of Idaho, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about July 19, 1995, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Humboldt, for the crime of perjury. Specifically, Mr. Moore apparently applied for public assistance without listing all of the property that he owned. He served five years, eight months probation. He was discharged on April 9, 2001, having completed his sentence.

John Joseph Moore has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Moore is active in his church, and is a licensed Emergency Medical Technician and volunteer firefighter.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, John Joseph Moore has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to John Joseph Moore a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Michelle Denise Moore

Michelle Denise Moore, a resident of Idaho, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

She was sentenced on or about July 19, 1995, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Humboldt, for the crime of perjury. Specifically, Ms. Moore apparently applied for public assistance without listing all of the property that she owned. She served three years probation. She was discharged on July 19, 1998, having completed her sentence.

Michelle Denise Moore has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. She has shown that since her release from custody, she has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted herself as a law abiding citizen. Indeed, Ms. Moore is active in her church, and is a licensed Emergency Medical Technician and volunteer firefighter. In 2013 she was commended for her volunteer efforts by the United States Bureau of Land Management.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of her sentence and good conduct in the community of her residence since her release, Michelle Denise Moore has paid her debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Michelle Denise Moore a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

James Richard Mullins

James Richard Mullins, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about March 19, 1990, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Orange, for the crime of driving under the influence. He served for months prison, and one year parole. He was discharged on September 28, 1991, having completed his sentence.

James Richard Mullins has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Diego, an order dated July 06, 2007, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Mullins reports that he participated in a substance abuse treatment program and is active in his church. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, James Richard Mullins has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to James Richard Mullins a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Kevin Nakamoto

Kevin Nakamoto, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about February 2, 1998, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Orange, for the crime of burglary and grand theft. Specifically, Mr. Nakamoto apparently broke into several garages and cars and took items from them. He served five years probation, and 270 days jail. He was discharged on February 2, 2003, having completed his sentence.

Kevin Nakamoto has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Orange, an order dated August 30, 2013, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Kevin Nakamoto has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Kevin Nakamoto a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Armando Jose Navas

Armando Jose Navas, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about August 7, 1998, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Stanislaus, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance. He served three years probation, and 90 days jail. He was discharged on August 7, 2001, having completed his sentence.

Armando Jose Navas has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Stanislaus, an order dated December 15, 2010, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Armando Jose Navas has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Armando Jose Navas a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Robert B. Nicewander

Robert B. Nicewander, a resident of Arizona, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about September 13, 1991, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Diego, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance for sale. He served three years probation. He was discharged on September 13, 1994, having completed his sentence.

Robert B. Nicewander has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Robert B. Nicewander has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Robert B. Nicewander a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Sandra Elizabeth Ortiz

Sandra Elizabeth Ortiz, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

She was sentenced on or about September 25, 1992, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of possession or purchase of a controlled substance for sale. She served three years probation. She was discharged on September 25, 1992, having completed her sentence.

Sandra Elizabeth Ortiz has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. She has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, an order dated September 9, 2010, evidencing that since her release from custody, she has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted herself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that she be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of her sentence and good conduct in the community of her residence since her release, Sandra Elizabeth Ortiz has paid her debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Sandra Elizabeth Ortiz a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the
Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Esteban Padilla

Esteban Padilla, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about February 27, 1998, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Bernardino, for the crime of burglary. Specifically, Mr. Padilla stole electronic equipment from a friend's home. He served ten months prison, and four years parole. He was discharged on February 4, 2003, having completed his sentence.

Esteban Padilla has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Bernardino, an order dated February 18, 2011, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Padilla has earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in criminal justice and is active in his church. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Esteban Padilla has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Esteban Padilla a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

James Michael Paiva, Jr.

James Michael Paiva, Jr., a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about April 22, 1999, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Butte, for the crime of manufacturing a controlled substance. He served three years, three months prison, and one year, one month parole. He was discharged on October 8, 2003, having completed his sentence.

James Michael Paiva, Jr. has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Butte, an order dated August 15, 2013, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, James Michael Paiva, Jr. has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to James Michael Paiva, Jr. a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Adrian Perez

Adrian Perez, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about February 2, 1989, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Merced, for the crime of voluntary manslaughter. Specifically, Mr. Perez appears to have been involved in a fist-fight with the victim when Mr. Perez's acquaintance pulled out a knife and stabbed the victim, killing him. He served two years, seven months with the California Youth Authority, and three years parole. He was discharged on October 3, 1994, having completed his sentence.

Adrian Perez has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Joaquin, an order dated May 9, 2013, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Adrian Perez has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Adrian Perez a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Martin Peterson

Martin Peterson, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about October 29, 1981, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Santa Clara, for the crime of vehicular manslaughter with gross negligence and hit and run with death or injury. Specifically, Mr. Peterson was driving his car while intoxicated when he ran a stop sign and struck the driver's side of the victim's car, killing her. He served eight months prison, and one year, one month parole. He was discharged on October 23, 1983, having completed his sentence.

Martin Peterson has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Joaquin, an order dated February 18, 2010, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Peterson reports that he is actively involved in substance abuse recovery programs. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Martin Peterson has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Martin Peterson a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Celeste Anya Phillips

Celeste Anya Phillips, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

She was sentenced on or about January 4, 1979, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crimes of assault with a deadly weapon, forging a name on a credit card, and receiving stolen property. Specifically, Ms. Phillips was detained by security guards at a shopping mall when she removed a revolver from her purse and shot a security guard twice, injuring him. She served three years, three months prison, and one year, one month parole. She was discharged on June 2, 1983, having completed her sentence.

Celeste Anya Phillips has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. She has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, an order dated February 28, 2008, evidencing that since her release from custody, she has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted herself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Ms. Phillips reports that she received a certificate in vocational nursing, and is active in her church. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that she be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of her sentence and good conduct in the community of her residence since her release, Celeste Anya Phillips has paid her debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Celeste Anya Phillips a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

John Bruce Pickering

John Bruce Pickering, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about April 24, 1992, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Butte, for the crime of transportation of a controlled substance for sale. He served nine months in prison, and one year, six months parole. He was discharged on November 29, 1995, having completed his sentence.

John Bruce Pickering has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Butte, an order dated July 18, 2013, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, John Bruce Pickering has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to John Bruce Pickering a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

James L. Previti

James L. Previti, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about August 26, 1992 in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Bernardino, for the crime of burglary, and was sentenced to Civil Addict Commitment. On or about September 29, 1993 he was sentenced in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Bernardino, for the crimes of possessing a controlled substance and receiving stolen property and was sentenced to four years, four months in prison to be served concurrently. He served one year, nine months in prison and four years, four months on parole. He was discharged on October 29, 1994, having completed his sentence.

James L. Previti has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Bernardino, an order dated July 23, 2007, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Previti has operated his own businesses since 2002 and established the John P. Previti Memorial Foundation, which has donated more than one million dollars to non-profit groups. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

The Board of Parole Hearings received and reviewed Mr. Previti's pardon application and related materials pursuant to California Penal Code section 4802, and recommended him for a pardon on February 14, 2014. Mr. Previti also received a recommendation for a pardon by a majority of the justices of the Supreme Court of California, received on April 16, 2014, as required by article V, section 8 subdivision (a) of the California Constitution.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, James L. Previti has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to James L. Previti a full and unconditional pardon for the above offenses.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Stanley Gene Rafter

Stanley Gene Rafter, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about December 19, 1990, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Mateo, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance for sale. He served one year prison, and three years parole. He was discharged on January 17, 1995, having completed his sentence.

Stanley Gene Rafter has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Placer, an order dated October 1, 2013, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Stanley Gene Rafter has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Stanley Gene Rafter a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Refugio Mercado Rosales

Refugio Mercado Rosales, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about March 5, 1986, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Monterey, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance for sale. He served three years probation, and one year jail. He was discharged on March 5, 1989, having completed his sentence.

Refugio Mercado Rosales has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Imperial, an order dated October 18, 2010, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Refugio Mercado Rosales has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Refugio Mercado Rosales a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Suzanne Lynn Salinas

Suzanne Lynn Salinas (Rogers), a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

She was sentenced on or about June 1, 1990, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Ventura, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance. She served eight months prison, and one year nine months parole. She was discharged on December 17, 1992, having completed her sentence.

Suzanne Lynn Salinas (Rogers) has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. She has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Ventura, an order dated September 13, 1996, evidencing that since her release from custody, she has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted herself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that she be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of her sentence and good conduct in the community of her residence since her release, Suzanne Lynn Salinas (Rogers) has paid her debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Suzanne Lynn Salinas (Rogers) a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Robert Scheich

Robert Scheich, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about September 11, 1989, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance. He served seven months prison, and one year parole. He was discharged on January 5, 1992, having completed his sentence.

Robert Scheich has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, an order dated July 7, 2011, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Robert Scheich has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Robert Scheich a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the
Great Seal of the State of California to
be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Gary Lee Simpson

Gary Lee Simpson, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about January 9, 1984, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Yuba, for the crime of conspiracy to commit a crime. Specifically, Mr. Simpson sold marijuana to an undercover officer. He served three years probation, and 104 days jail. He was discharged on January 9, 1987, having completed his sentence.

Gary Lee Simpson has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Yuba, an order dated October 28, 1991, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Gary Lee Simpson has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Gary Lee Simpson a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Christopher John Stinson

Christopher John Stinson, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about August 8, 1994, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Tehama, for the crime of burglary. He served two years, eleven months prison, and three years, five months parole. He was discharged on December 22, 2000, having completed his sentence.

Christopher John Stinson has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Tehama, an order dated August 20, 2013, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Christopher John Stinson has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Christopher John Stinson a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Wendy Kay Thompson

Wendy Kay Thompson (Pruitt), a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

She was sentenced on or about February 27, 1990, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Diego, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance for sale and possession in excess of one kilogram. She served one year, eight months prison, and two years, two months parole. She was discharged on February 10, 1994, having completed her sentence.

Wendy Kay Thompson (Pruitt) has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. She has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Diego, an order dated October 27, 2006, evidencing that since her release from custody, she has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted herself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that she be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of her sentence and good conduct in the community of her residence since her release, Wendy Kay Thompson (Pruitt) has paid her debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Wendy Kay Thompson (Pruitt) a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the
Great Seal of the State of California to
be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Brock Eli Trotter

Brock Eli Trotter, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about September 17, 1999, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Kern, for the crime of burglary. Specifically, Mr. Trotter apparently stole jewelry from a friend's home to support his drug habit, but later returned the jewelry to her. He served one year, one month prison, and one year, seven months parole. He was discharged on June 19, 2002, having completed his sentence.

Brock Eli Trotter has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Kern, an order dated October 24, 2013, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Trotter earned his associate's and bachelor's degrees, and currently works as a recovery specialist for Kern County. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Brock Eli Trotter has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Brock Eli Trotter a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the
Great Seal of the State of California to
be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Tammy Ruenell Turner

Tammy Ruenell Turner (Welch), a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

She was sentenced on or about June 26, 1989, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Sutter, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance, sale or transportation of a controlled substance, possession of a controlled substance for sale and transportation of a controlled substance for sale. She served two years, one month prison, and one year, one month parole. She was discharged on September 9, 1991, having completed her sentence.

Tammy Ruenell Turner (Welch) has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. She has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Yuba, an order dated September 27, 2010, evidencing that since her release from custody, she has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted herself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that she be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of her sentence and good conduct in the community of her residence since her release, Tammy Ruenell Turner (Welch) has paid her debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Tammy Ruenell Turner (Welch) a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Joseph Al Viscuso

Joseph Al Viscuso, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about March 15, 1989, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Contra Costa, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance and possession of marijuana for sale. He served three years probation, and 180 days jail. He was discharged on March 15, 1992, having completed his sentence.

Joseph Al Viscuso has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Contra Costa, an order dated May 4, 1994, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Joseph Al Viscuso has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Joseph Al Viscuso a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

James Curtis Vorwerk

James Curtis Vorwerk, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about March 19, 1982, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Orange, for the crime of transportation of a controlled substance and possession of a controlled substance. He served three years probation. He was discharged on March 19, 1985, having completed his sentence.

James Curtis Vorwerk has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Orange, an order dated May 6, 2011, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, James Curtis Vorwerk has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to James Curtis Vorwerk a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Isaac Elliot Weizer

Isaac Elliot Weizer, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about July 29, 1991, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance. He served three years probation. He was discharged on August 26, 1994, having completed his sentence.

Isaac Elliot Weizer has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, an order dated October 26, 2004, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Isaac Elliot Weizer has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Isaac Elliot Weizer a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Jon Wentzell

Jon Wentzell, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about November 25, 1992, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Joaquin, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance for sale. He served five years probation. He was discharged on November 25, 1997, having completed his sentence.

Jon Wentzell has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Joaquin, an order dated February 25, 2010, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Jon Wentzell has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Jon Wentzell a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Stephen Leonard White

Stephen Leonard White, a resident of Idaho, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about April 4, 1997, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Sacramento, for the crime of diversion of funds. Specifically, Mr. White apparently was a licensed contractor and used construction loan funds to pay other bills. He served three years parole, and seven months prison. He was discharged on December 12, 2000, having completed his sentence.

Stephen Leonard White has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. White reports that he is an active volunteer in his church and community.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Stephen Leonard White has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Stephen Leonard White a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State