Michael Acosta

Michael Acosta, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about August 18, 2000, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Orange, for the crime of selling or furnishing marijuana. He served three years probation, and 45 days jail. He was discharged on August 18, 2003, having completed his sentence.

Michael Acosta has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Michael Acosta, has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Michael Acosta a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 5th day of April 2015.

Shawn Curtsinger

Shawn Curtsinger, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about January 18, 1996, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Kern, for the crimes of planting or cultivating marijuana, possession of marijuana for sale, and possession of a controlled substance. He served three years probation, and one year jail. He was discharged on January 18, 1999, having completed his sentence.

Shawn Curtsinger has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Kern, an order dated August 25, 2014, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Shawn Curtsinger has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Shawn Curtsinger a full and unconditional pardon for the above offenses.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 5th day of April 2015.

Patricio Moran, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about March 27, 1997, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Diego, for the crime of false imprisonment. Specifically, Mr. Moran demanded money from a delivery truck driver, and had the driver take him to another location. He served one year, ten months prison, and one year, one month parole. He was discharged on March 16, 2000, having completed his sentence.

Patricio Moran has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, an order dated August 13, 2009, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Moran has worked for a church mission for several years and reports that he participates in homeless outreach programs. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Patricio Moran has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Patricio Moran a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 5th day of April 2015.

Dewaine Smith

Dewaine Smith, a resident of Nevada, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about August 21, 1986, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance for sale. He served two years, five months probation, eleven months prison, and one year parole. He was discharged on January 6, 1991, having completed his sentence.

Dewaine Smith has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Dewaine Smith, has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Dewaine Smith a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 5th day of April 2015.
