

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

SEP 06 2011

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 390 without my signature.

This bill would codify the Department of Motor Vehicles' (DMV) practice of sending a 60 day written notice of expiration to holders of California identification cards.

As a result of 2008 legislation, DMV allows ID card holders the option to renew their cards by mail or Internet. The 60 day notice must be sent to prompt the ID holder to pay his or her fee and renew by mail or Internet.

Nothing suggests that the DMV is about to discontinue mailing out the 60 day notice. For that reason, this bill is unnecessary.

Sincerely,

Edmund G. Brown Jr.
