Gene Raymond Barclift

Gene Raymond Barclift, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

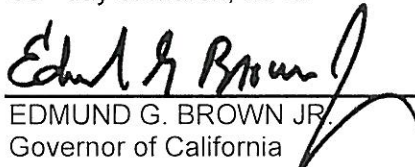

He was sentenced on or about April 7, 1978, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Bernardino, for the crime of possession of a narcotic for sale. He served two years, 11 months probation. He was discharged on March 11, 1981, having completed his sentence.

Gene Raymond Barclift has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby persons may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Monterey, an order dated August 27, 1995, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. The court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Gene Raymond Barclift has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Gene Raymond Barclift a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 30th day of March, 2013.

She was sentenced on or about December 14, 1982, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Contra Costa, for the crimes of transportation/sell of a controlled substance, possession of a controlled substance, and possession of a controlled substance for sale. She served three years probation. She was discharged on December 14, 1985, having completed her sentence.

Marianne Dias has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby persons may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. She has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Contra Costa, an order dated November 26, 2007, evidencing that since her release from custody, she has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted herself as a law-abiding citizen. The court has recommended that she be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of her sentence and good conduct in the community of her residence since her release, Marianne Dias has paid her debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Marianne Dias a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 30th day of March, 2013.
